

Nari Dance Company

We are an South Asian-American Chicago Dance Company comprised of young professionals who strive to uphold womanhood, while giving back to the community.

Our hope is to raise awareness and funding for important causes, not only in the Chicagoland area, but throughout the United States, using the art of Indian and American dance styles as our creative vessel.

We will be having showcases throughout the year that will be produced by us and all the proceeds of those showcases will go to the selected charity to be highlighted for that showcase.

Come be a part of something great and make a difference.

Attached is our sponsorship form, email naridancecompany@gmail.com for further information. Please feel free to email us its any questions you may have.
